Indigenous Labour Market Information Survey Project

Did you know there's a lack of workforce information about First Nations
in our area?

At AETS, we're working hard to change this. Our Labour Market Information (LMI) Survey helps us identify workforce gaps and matches First Nation people with training and jobs.

The LMI project explores employment related data from working age (15+) Indigenous citizens on and off reserve from North Superior First Nations. Approval has been granted by each community.

INFORMATION WILL BE USED:

Data will be analyzed to improve education, training and employment related programs and services.

FINANCIAL INCENTIVE?

$10 will be given to each participant who completes the survey. You can participate in the survey annually.

Each First Nation community is also offering draws, lotteries and other prizes for participants.
