

Anishinabek Employment and Training Services

Aboriginal Group and Partners Collaborate to work with Employers for an Inclusive Workplace Environment

November 17, 2017, Thunder Bay, ON - Anishinabek Employment and Training Services (AETS) along with the Local Employment Planning Council (LEPC), are proud to announce their collaboration in co-hosting the Indigenous Workplace Inclusion – Strategies for Moving Forward Workshops. The purpose of the event is to explore ways to create an inclusive workplace environment. Media are invited to an announcement that will also feature the signing of a partnership between AETS and Indigenous Works to enhance services and tools to help employers achieve Indigenous Workplace Inclusion.

DATE: MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 2017
TIME: 12:30 PM to 12:45 PM
LOCATION: Victoria Inn
WELLINGTON ROOM
555 Arthur Street West
(Light Refreshments Provided)

Editor Notes:

AETS was established in 1997 and has assisted First Nation Citizens for over nineteen years to stay in or re-enter the labour force. It acts as a Local Delivery Mechanism (LDM) under the Union of Ontario Indians (UOI) Anishinabek Aboriginal Skills and Employment Strategy (ASETS), which includes nine member First Nation communities with over 8,000 First Nation citizens

-30-

Media Contacts:

John DeGiacomo, Executive Director
Anishinabek Employment and Training Services
E - ed@aets.org C: 807-630-8423

Madge Richardson, Executive Director
Local Employment Planning Council (LEPC)
E - mrichardson@nswpb.ca C: 807-630-8167