

INDIGENOUS WORKPLACE INCLUSION:

Strategies for Moving Forward ▶▶

Learn, discuss, succeed. Become a leader for change.

▶ NOVEMBER 20 & 21, 2017
Embassy Room, Victoria Inn
Thunder Bay, ON

▶ Early Bird Registration until
September 30, 2017

▶ WHAT'S YOUR POSITION
ON THE INCLUSION CONTINUUM?
Dinner Workshop on November 20th, 2017
Open to the Public (register online)
Doors open at 6:30 pm

TRINA MAHER

Trina is the owner of Bridging Concepts. With over 15 years of providing corporate Indigenous inclusion expertise, Trina has helped companies, governments, and agencies build stronger bridges and understanding with the Indigenous community to support recruitment and retention solutions.

DIANE CARRIERE

Diane is the President of the Canadian Aboriginal Human Resources Management Association (CAHRMA). She is a Certified Human Resource Practitioner (CHRP) with over 20 years of experience working among corporate Canada and providing HR consulting expertise to First Nation communities.

KELLY LENDSAY

Kelly, President/CEO of Indigenous Works, is a social entrepreneur who is internationally recognized as one of Canada's foremost innovators of Indigenous social & economic inclusion, corporate engagements and partnership bringing his message of inclusion to more than 250 audiences in Canada, USA and Australia.

Register Now!

Registration limited to 100 participants.
Learn more and register at www.nswpb.ca/lepc/iwi
or contact LEPC at 346-2940